Points for Prayer

We hope you find these prayer points useful.

Monday 11th June

It has been a difficult week for some of our church families. The Ferguson and Sloan families have buried loved ones, while others have had to process some unexpected news. Pray for our church family. Pray for comfort and strength for those who face sad or uncertain days ahead. Pray that those who are sick would know God's healing.

Tuesday 12th June

Thank God for the response from our congregation to the appeal for housing. Thank God for that willingness to serve our local community. Pray that we as a church would find ways to meaningfully reach out to those around us.

Wednesday 13th June

Pray for the upcoming Holiday Bible club. Thank God for the opportunity to hold this as an afterschool club in the school. Pray for Michelle and Heather along with their team of leaders. Pray for the children, that as they hear the story of the gospel so the Spirit would be at work enabling them to respond to that message.

Thursday 14th June

The continuing destructive effects of war in Ukraine thrust more and more people into fear and destitution. It is not just, dams, or land or even homes that our being destroyed. Lives are being left in ruins. Pray for the ongoing situation. Pray for an end to violence, an end to injustice. Pray for a just peace settlement.

Friday 15th June

Robert Walker is our Open Doors representative. Thank God for the work he does in making us aware of the plight of the persecuted church. Pray for the persecuted church. Ask Robert for more information and prayer points and commit to praying regularly for our brothers and sisters who face pressures we can't even fathom.

Saturday 16th June

Our young people meet tonight for Blaze and Chill. Pray for all who go to these youth clubs. Pray that Michelle and Heather would have opportunities to talk to all who come about the wonderful gospel of Jesus Christ.

Sunday 17th June

Pray for this morning's service. Pray that as we read our bibles, pray and sing to God's glory that the Spirit would move among us, revealing more of the glory of God. Pray that the glory of God would not only fill our church but each one of us. Ask God for an excitement and sense of expectation as we come to worship.
