Stories Jesus Told

Points for Prayer

We hope you find these prayer points useful.

Monday 3rd July

CSSM begins this week. Thank God for the work of CSSM over a long number of years and pray for Luke Hanson and his team as they work in Portstewart this year.

Tuesday 4th July

A number of local businesses are finding trading conditions difficult. Some have recently closed on the Promenade. Pray for our local businesses, the owners and the families supported through the jobs they provide.

Wednesday 5th July

Our hospital and other public services are operating under incredible pressures. Pray for all who work in public service. Pray for senior civil servants who are forced into making difficult situations. Pray for all those who use our public services, people who are often in crisis. Ask that we would have a restoration of local and accountable government.

Thursday 6th July

Today is set up day for the Keswick Convention at Portstewart. Please pray for the convention, for the speakers and the management committee. Pray that local residents will not be inconvenienced by the presence of so many visitors over the week.

Friday 7th July

Today brings to an end another busy week in our church office. Give thanks for Cynthia who does so much more than simply provide administrative assistance. Pray for Cynthia as she continues to care for those who phone and call at the office.

Saturday 8th July

The war in Ukraine continues to be waged unabated at an incredible human cost. Pray for the people of Ukraine. Pray also for the people of Russia who live under the canopy of lies and oppression. Pray for a just end to the war and glorifying of God who has promised to make wars to cease.

Sunday 9th July

This morning we welcome Jonathan Thomas from Cornerstone Church in Abergavenny. Jonathan is one of the Keswick speakers. Pray for Jonathan not only as he speaks to us today, but as he teaches over the weekend in the Keswick Tent.
