Points for Prayer

Reflections

Sunday 16th March

Read Revelation 7:9. This evening we travel to Terrace Row to hear from the Moderator of the General Assembly about how the church is partnering with other churches in Poland. Take time today to remind yourself that the church is worldwide and pray for the church across the globe.

Monday 17th March

Read 2 Timothy 4:5. Today is St. Patrick's day, we have much to thank St Patrick for, not least his evangelism that did so much to make known the gospel of Jesus Christ on the island of Ireland. Pray about how we can continue St Patrick's legacy by making known the gospel within our community and the wider island.

Tuesday 18th March

Read 1 Peter 3:15: Pray about the opportunities each of us has to talk about our faith in Jesus Christ. Pray about our willingness or otherwise to take those opportunities. Pray for a boldness of spirit and confidence in the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Wednesday 19th March

Read Psalm 139:23. Ask God to search our hearts, not just in terms of confessing obvious sins, but in terms of what our hearts desire is. Pray that our hearts would be set upon Jesus, that our first love would be Jesus that we would have a desire to openly and honestly talk about our faith in Jesus Christ.

Thursday 20th March

Read Psalm 37:23. Pray that God would direct our steps as individuals, but also as church. Seek God's guidance on what we should be doing as a church and how each of us play a part in that work. Thank God that even if we get it wrong, he will pick us up and set us off again.

Friday 21st March

Tonight is the GB display, pray for our girls that as they embark on various stages of life that God would fill their hearts with joy and hope (Ecclesiastes 11:9), guide their paths with wisdom and direction (Proverbs 4:11) and that they would find strength in your love and resilience in times of trial. (1 Peter 5:8-9)

Saturday 22nd March

Read John 4:24. As we prepare for another Sunday morning service together, pray that as God's people we would worship in Spirit and in Truth. That we would know an encounter with God that transforms us and challenges us.
